

Presslane

Runs the shop while you print.

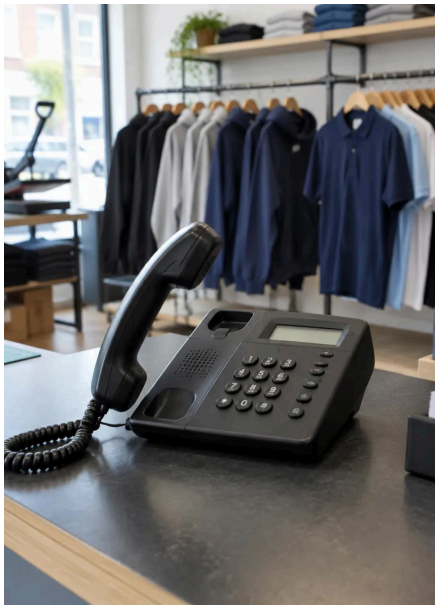

Presslane sends your quotes, keeps customers in the loop, answers the phone and tracks every job. You print.

For printers, embroiderers, sign makers and promo gift companies. £199 a month.

A print shop loses money between jobs, not on them.

The quote nobody chased.
Most lost quotes were never followed up.

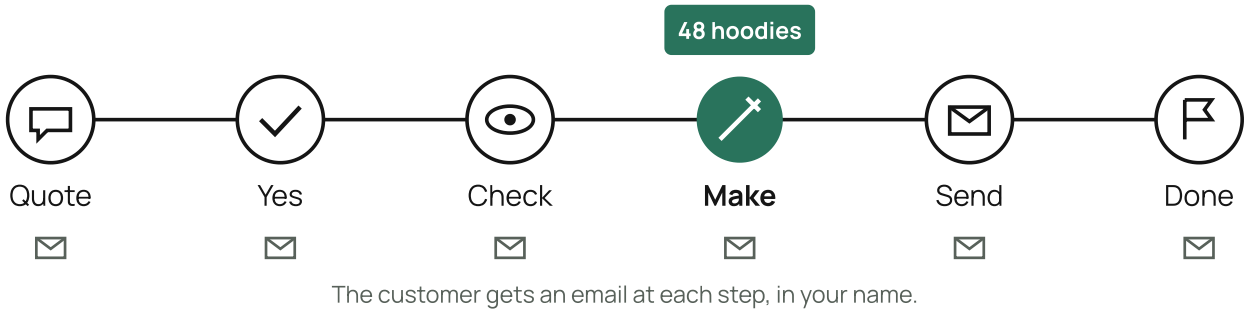

The customer who rang three times.
“Where is my order?” is the call you get most.

The job that sat on the bench.
It was finished. The computer said it was not.

Presslane closes those gaps. Here is one job, start to finish.

One job, start to finish

The customer gets an email at each step, in your name.

Sam wants 48 hoodies with his logo on the chest. Here is what happens.

Quote. Presslane sends a price in minutes, with his logo on the hoodie.

Yes. He says yes and pays online. The job starts.

Check. He looks at the picture and approves it with one tap.

Make. You print or stitch. A scan at the bench updates the job.

Send. Pack it, scan it, post it. He gets the tracking number.

Done. He got an email at every step. In your name.
